Additions and Corrections to Part 2

"Descendants of John Ball of Watertown, Mass. 1630-1636."

No. 16:-According to Clara (Preston) Allen of Jackson, Miss (a descendant) Abigail Ball, No. 13, dau. of John and Margaret (Hemenway) Ball, b. May 10, 1752 was the Abigail Ball who married on Nov. 25, 1771, Sylvanus Oaks, instead of No. 158, Abigail Ball in Part I of the Ball book. "Sylvanus" Oaks, (George², Nathaniel¹) was born in Westborough, Mass., Mar. 30, 1749; d. about 1800.m. in Rutland, Mass. Nov. 25, 1771, Abigail Ball, b. May 10, 1752; d. May 21, 1806. They had eight children; Rebecca; Lydia; John; Darius; Mary; Silas; George; Levi; Margaret."

This is taken from "Oak, Oaks, Oakes," by Henry Lebbens. No. 158, Abigail Ball born in 1729 would have been 42 yrs. old in 1771, almost too old to have eight children after that. Also would hardly have married a man born in 1749.

Nos. 3-4-5-6-7 Children of John and Lydia (Ward) Ball, were born in Warwick, Mass. (Vital Record)

No. 4 Jonathan Cobb who married Hannah Ball was the son of Peres and Abiah (Richmond) Cobb, born New Braintree, Mass.

No. 30 Rosanna Gunn, wife of Rodolphus Ball, was born Oct. 6, 1809 Wendell, Mass., daug. of Abel and Clarissa (Loveland) Gunn. (Vital Record, Wendell, Mass.)

(On Clarissa Loveland's birth record at Bolton, Conn. the name is spelled "Clarissa" but on her grave stone and in Family Bible it is "Clarice")

No. 43 Mary E. Smith who married Samuel W. Ball was b. July 26, 1828, dau. of Nathan and Beroye (Cobb) Smith.

No. 44 Frederick Augustus Ball, Jr. Born Nov. 11, 1823, did not marry Mary Diana Temple as Ball book says. She was the 2nd wife of his father, Frederick A. Ball, No. 12 in book as proven by marriage record in Leverett, Mass. (Vital Record)- "Frederick A. Ball, widower, age 59 of Deerfield, married April 9, 1851, Mary D. Temple, widow, age 29, born Leverett, daug. of Adam and Submit Torrey. Frederick A. Ball, son of John and Lydia Ball" (Vital Record Copy).

* The children, Loring, born Sept. 12, 1852 and Susan Alma, born Nov. 2, 1854; d. Feb. 27, 1856 were the children of Frederick A. Ball, Sr.

Deerfield Vital Records gives her marriage to George W. Marks of Greenfield, Mass. as her 3rd marriage.

"Geo. W. Marks, age 62 married July 29, 1860 to Mary D. Ball (alia Torrey) age 35, born Leverett, dau. of Adam and Submit Torrey. Her 3rd marriage". (Vital Record, Deerfield, Mass.)

The following was given me (Addie M. Ball) by Mrs. John Birge, widow of John Birge, Greenfield, Mass. about 1932.

After the death of Frederick A. Ball, Sr., in 1836, the son
* Loring Ball, whose full name was Charles Loring Ball, when a boy of five or six, was adopted by a John Birge of Deerfield, Mass. and name changed to John Birge.

(In 1900 my husband, George R. Ball, personally knew this John Birge, and at that time he, John Birge, told my husband he was a cousin of his (G.R. Ball's) grandfather and that his right name was Ball and his mother was a Torrey from Leverett but did not tell his original given name and we supposed it to be John. At the time the Ball Book was being compiled we tried to find this John Ball, as we supposed, who was adopted by John Birge, but did not connect him with the Loring Ball we could find no trace of until we found his widow and she gave the information).

Note;- Do not think the son, Frederick A. Ball, Jr. No. 44, was ever married as I find no vital record to that effect and he is buried on his father's lot in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Deerfield, Mass. and no wife buried there with him.
